we've only just begun to live

We've only just begun to live.
White lace and promises,
A kiss for luck, and we're on our way.
We've only begun;
Before the rising sun we fly.
So many roads to choose,
We start out walking and learn to run;
And yet we've just begun,
Sharing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over — just the two of us,
Working together — day to day — together;
And when the evening comes, we smile.
So much of life ahead,
We'll find a place where there's room to grow;
And yet we've just begun.

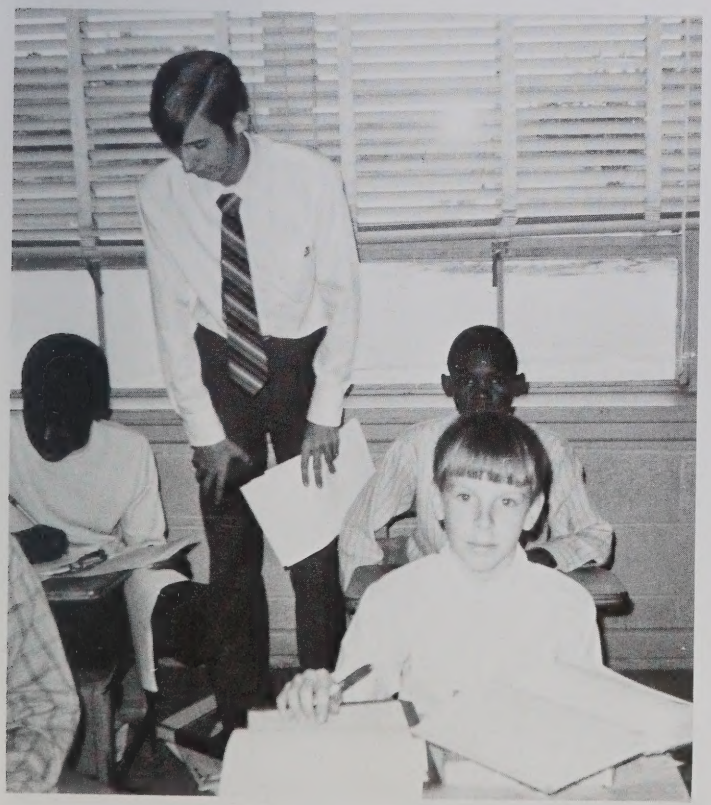
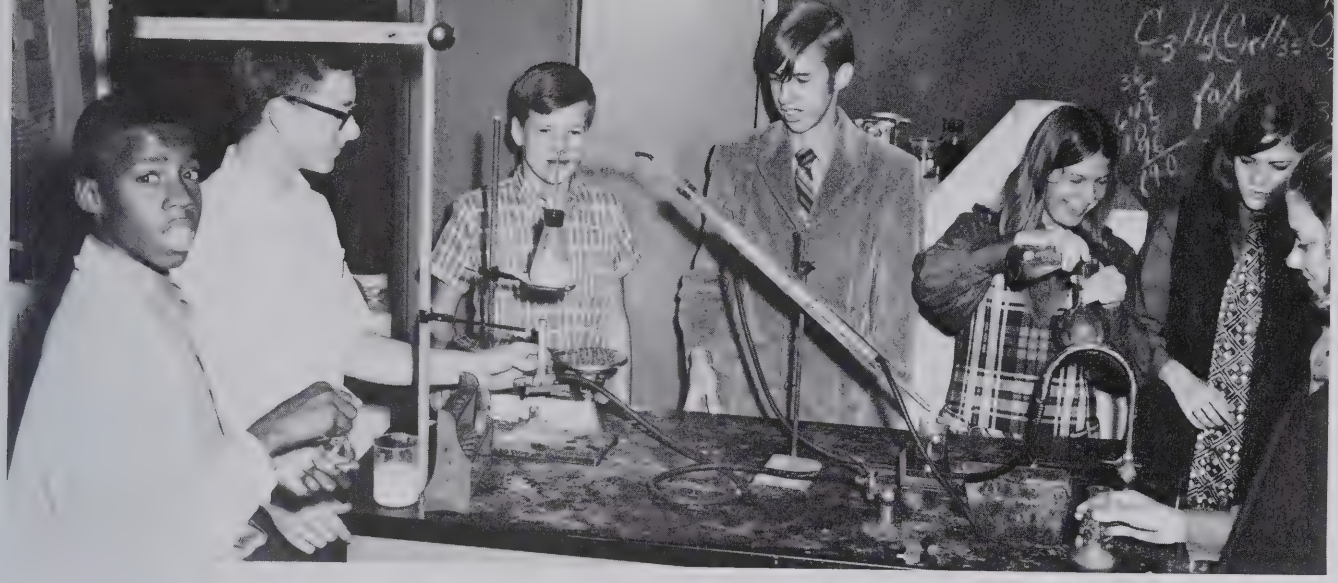
sharing horizons that are new to us

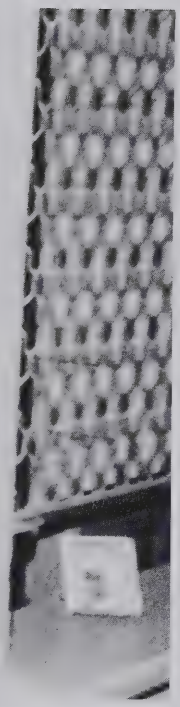


just the two of us

talking it over—



working together—day to day



In dedicating the annual this year we wanted to honor someone who has been a friend as well as a favorite educator. This, we have done. Mr. Dail has stuck with us whether it was a frustrating history class or an unbelievable night working on the Junior-Senior. We wanted to dedicate our masterpiece to someone whom we love very much. This, we have also done. With much pride we dedicate the 1970-71 edition of the Chowan Chief to Mr. Winston Dail.

Striving to meet the deadlines are Brenda Smith, editor; Beechye Ward, Allen Spivey, associate editors; Mrs. Loretta Guard, Mrs. Carole Kirby, advisors.

Business Manager, Charles Dail, and and his assistant, Claudia Lane, add advertisement returns.

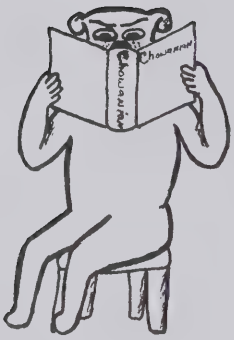
Learning to type with one finger is a task learned by Jacqueline Felton, Becky Nixon, Kathleen Nixon, and Janice Ward as they prepare copy.

Special Editors and their associates meet for another jam session in the guidance office.

Using proper lighting, standing the right distance from an object, and a steady hand are qualities required by Jimmy Evans and Fred Spruill in taking good pictures.

Business Manager, Gail Nixon; Sponsor, Mrs. Marvis Hendrix; Editor, Sandra Spivey; and Associate Editor, Robin Ward, work diligently in getting the CHOWANIAN out on schedule.

chowanian



Giving the CHOWANIAN that extra touch are Art Editors: Ted Peele, Rhonda Evans, Brenda Hurdle, and Mary Louise Phelps.

Informing the public of happenings within the school are feature editors: Beechye Ward, Gwen Ward, Kitty Evans, Vann Ward, Patricia Perry, Joan Hare, and Janie Evans.

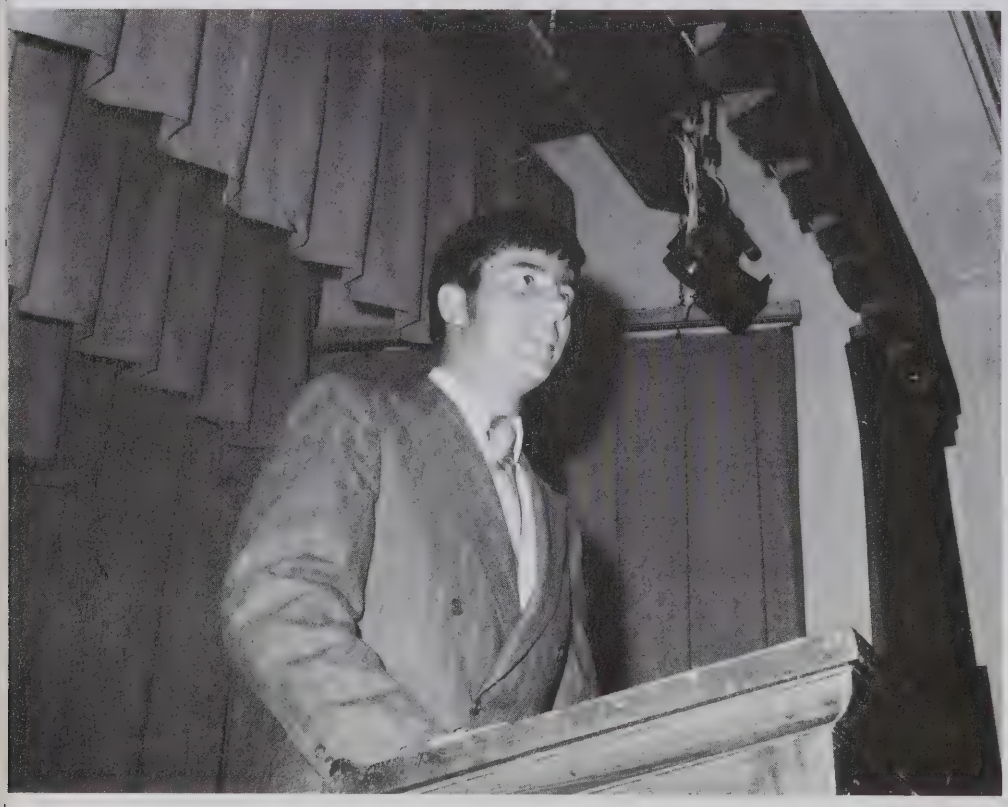
Typing stencils in perfection becomes a must for typists: Jackie Felton, Kathleen Nixon, Janice Ward, and Joyce Bunch.

After other staff members have finished their jobs, the circulation and mimeographing staff: David Cooke, Henry Hinton, Marie Chappell, Jimmy Evans, Tony Bass, Allen Spivey, and Thomas Asbell spend many hours running off, stapling, and circulating the award-winning paper.

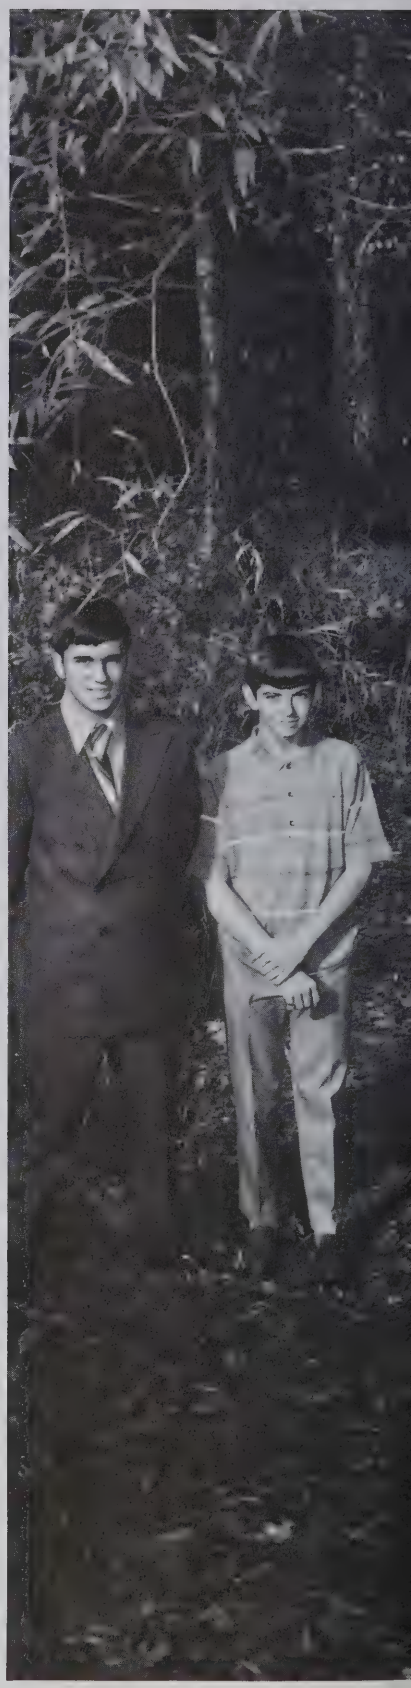
Topnotch reporters and dedicated proofreaders help keep the CHOWANIAN an All-American paper.

student council

Henry Hinton, Student Council president, gives his acceptance speech after winning the election through a campaign in which he pictured Chowan as a working machine.



Representing Chowan effectively as officers are Henry Hinton, president; Emmett Winborne, vice-president; Janie Evans, secretary; and Shelia Byrum, treasurer.



Mr. D. T. Ward, sponsor, ponders over the many problems there can be in a school.

Class representatives carry information from Student Council meetings to their classmates.

beta club

Leading the Beta Club are Charles Dail, vice-president; Brenda Smith, treasurer; Mr. Winston Dail, sponsor; Gail Nixon, president; Scarlett Bunch, secretary; and Robin Ward, reporter.

Room 14 seems to be the adapted location of Beta meetings.

glee club

Absence of a music director doesn't stop the Glee Club of Chowan; the show must go on.

Directing the Glee Club this year are Kitty Evans, secretary; David Cooke, vice-president; Susan Jordan, president; Rhonda Evans, treasurer; and Rebecca Hobbs and Chris Hollowell, reporters.

Kitty Evans and Susan Jordan supply accompaniment and leadership for the Glee Club.

library club

Library assistants work at the book fair.

Supervising the Library Club are officers, Janice Ward, reporter; Scarlett Bunch, secretary; Beverly Lamb, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Smithson, sponsor; Ted Peele, vice-president; and Louette Monds, president.

Qualifications for a Library Club member consist of working as a library assistant and maintaining your patience when working with students.

fha

More than one woman in a kitchen can be a disaster as discovered by officers, Kathleen Nixon, president; Brenda Smith, treasurer; Joyce Bunch, historian; Sheila Byrum, recreation leader; Mrs. Barbara Ward, sponsor; Rhonda Evans, reporter; Gwen Ward, secretary; Carleen Goodwin, parliamentarian; and Marie Chappell, vice-president.

Carleen Goodwin, FFA Sweetheart.

Tony Bass, president; Aubrey Tynch, secretary; Fred Spruill, vice-president; Allen Spivey, treasurer; Donald Bass, sentinel; Vann Ward, reporter and Mr. Everett White, sponsor, head the FFA which is developing young men into fine future farmers.

Coach John Ward, sponsor;
Gail Nixon, secretary;
Patricia Perry, president;
Henry Hinton, vice-president;
and David Cooke, treasurer.

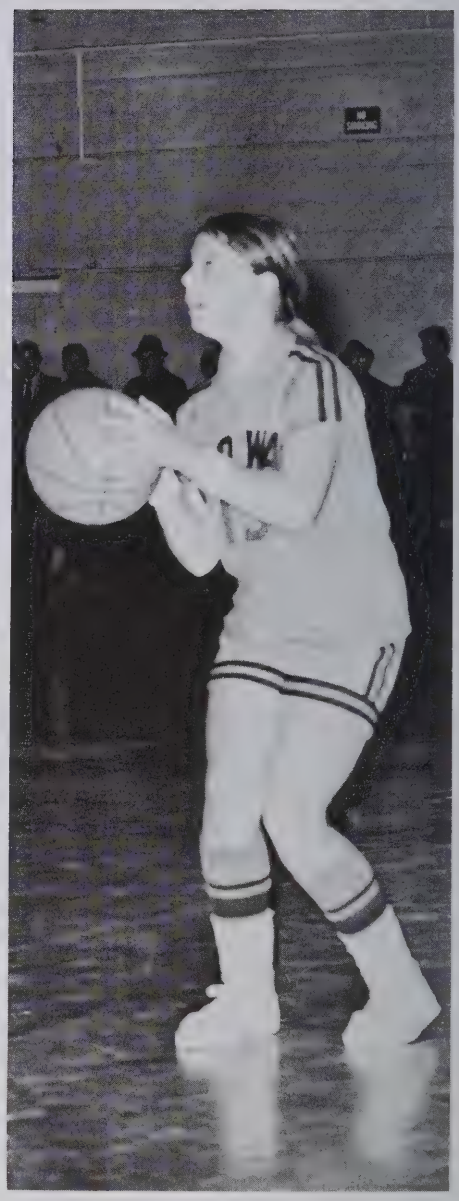
sophomore class



Sophomores are silly, giggly, and neat. We use our minds and not our feet. But Sophomores are more than just a title or name. We are leaders — with the whole world to gain. Sophomores are strong in good ole school spirit. During our ballgames — that's when you hear it. We as Sophomores stand proud and tall. Cause we like to think we're the best of them all. Yes, the Sophomores at CHS have a lot to give, and we'll have our chance for we've only just begun to live.

In Memoriam

Lt. John H. Winborne

November 4, 1945
October 2, 1970

"Duty Is Sublime"

Someone has said "Character is a diamond that scratches every other stone." This is a true parallel to the short life that Johnny lived. He left a mark for good on all with whom he came in contact.

Life is not measured in length of years lived, but in service rendered to humanity. Johnny gave his best to his fellowman, for he was truly dedicated to his family, friends, school, and country. Although he has been called to a field of greater service, he has left behind footprints to challenge all who would follow in his steps.
